Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma,
and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won 50 widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen fligher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as arliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and the various affections to milder forms of disease and the while adapted to milder forms of disease and for the word of the before an interest of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colle and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the discase scenied settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most, abstract of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by taking the Bronchitts is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully mointained.

OHLORAL HYDRATE-New Sedative UREASOTE-Caution)-from Wood Tar, of which T. M. & Son are the only British Manufacturers.

Will commence their trips in connection with Barnard's Express and Mail Line

Wednesday Morning, June 15, 1870. Duty and Destiny. While our Delegates are at Ottawa negotiating a political union with the Dominion of Canada, and while our Governor is at San Francisco for the purpose of concluding another kind of union, it behooves the people to remember that they, too, have duties and responsibilities peculiar to the hour-that they are not by any means disinterested spectators. In so far as the latter union is concerned, the duty of the coloni-te will probably not go beyond extending to the immediate sufject of it those expressions of hearty good will and loyal welcome befitting such interesting oc-casions. But their relations to the for-mer and larger union are of a very diferent character. In it they will be a terent character. In it they will be a contracting party—the party most interested, in fact. Such being the case, surely it becomes the people to employ the few weeks or months that may inatervene in serious consideration of the weighty matters involved. This duty must be the more apparent in view of must be the more apparent in view of the fact that, after the terms of union shall have been negotiated and all the marriage settlements, so to speak, arranged, British Columbia will be led to the alter (the polls) and asked the mo-mentous question, Wilt thou, &c., and it will devolve upon her to say, Yes or No. How important, then, that the people should well consider the whole It may be thought by some that it will be time enough to consider the subject when it is definitely known what terms Canada is prepared to grant, This is doubtless to a great extent true, Yet it is not wholly true. When the terms come back and are formuly submitted to the people, then will doubt-less be the time for ful consideration and decisive action. But there is much which the people would do well to em ploy the present calm in thinking about; for it must be remembered that the promulgation of the mutual conditions will be the signal for an extend, electioneering campuige, when men's minds will, in all probability, be in a condition much less favorable to and unbiased thought. There tions will be the signal for an exciting calm and unbiased thought. There is another reason why all the thinking should not be left till election times. The people will not be invited to cast a direct vote, sye or no, upon the terms submitted. That vote is to be given by the representatives they may send to the new Council. The people are to say aye or no to the question 'Do you want Confederation upon the terms now submitted to you?" But they are to say it through their representatives. If a majority of these representatives should be elected to promote Confederation then will the people have answered aye. But should a m jority be elected to op-pose Confederation, the answer of the people will have been no. Thus it will readily be seen how important it is that the people should exercise intelligent and discrest caution and judgment in the selection of those to whom they delegate the right to say aye or no up on a subject so inti ately connected with the fate and prosperity of the colony. The first duty would appear to be the selection of men of tried political themselves capable of adhering to those principles, whether backing in official sunshine or shivering in the cold shades of the opposition. It will probably be desirable also to avoid two classes of politicians: Those who are unconditionally and unreasoningly opposed to Confederation on the one hand, and those who are unconditionally and unreasoningly in favor of Confederation on the other. Should the people be called up-on to choose between these two extremists, the so two evils, it is probable that they would find the later to be the lesser, inasmuch as the colony would fare better at Ottawa than it could hope to do at Downing street. But it is to be presumed that no such choice will be necessary, that the electors wil have no difficulty in securing as their representatives at such an important political juncture those who will only seck to promote union with Canada upon terms clearly and unmistakately beneficial to British Columbia - men scorn alike to sel their country to Canada or to a foreign power. Seeing that such grave respon-similation and consequences must turn upon the next election, it is surely fitting that the people should endeavor to realize their true position and responsibility, and not allow themselves to drift with listless indifference into this election, as it is to be feared they have done on some former occasions. Auother matter of very great importance, and which may perhaps be regarded as consingent upon or ancillary to the main question of Conf. deration, will also present itself to the people at the polls, either directly or through their repre-sentutives. We aliade to the question of sell-government. And in what more practical or convincing way can the people assert their fitness for the full exercise of those powers of seif-government accorded to the other Provinces of the Dominion, aye, even to the new Province of Mannoba, than by making a discreet and intelligent use of their franchise at the next election? Let the colonists remember that it is by the character and abilities of the men they send to the next Conneil they may be judged as to their fitness for sell-gov erna ent. Verily, the vote the people will shortly be called upon to cast will be a momentous one. Let them make timely and fitting preparation for the wise and conscientious discharge of a dury upon which may hinge the face of empire-upon which must without doubt in great part depend the prosperity of this our adop ed country—our 'Western Home,' Is it too much, then, to expect that the people will rise to the great duty of the hour? Burying the dry bones of dead political issues, and burying along with them mere self-seeking and unscrupulous political tricksters, let the colonists seek to rise above local and party considerations, and, acting in the name and on behalf of their country, unite in one common Dominion Mail Summary.

We have Canadian exchanges to the 24th May. There was a general impression at Ottawa that as soon as the Hon Mr Kenny resires from the position of Administrator of the Government of Nova Scotia, the Hon Joseph Howe will be appointed to the position of Lieutenant Governor of that Province. It is expected that this will take place in a very few months. It was understood that Mr B Chamberlain, MP, would receive the appointment of Queen's Printer for the Dominion. It was rumored that the Hon Mr Dunkin is to go upon the Bench, and the Hon Mr Cauchon is to take a seat in the Dominion Cabinet. On the 20th Sir John A Macdonald-was very much improved, he took food and was well enough to sit up a little. On the 21st and 22d he was scarcely as well and was unable to sit up. On the 23d he was reported as being much in the same state. In the Newloundland contested chot on embrogho the Conferates had gained a victory It will be remembered that the anti-Confederates sorght to get over an error in adjourning for a week by altering the records of the Legislatore. The question having been appealed to the Supreme Court, judgment was given on the 20th in favor of Messrs Carter and Evaos, the Confederates it was sought to meson, and a writ of prohibition was granted to restrain the election committee from further action. Three Judges were unanimous in declaring the journals of the House to have been proved talve as they stand, sicce the adjournment of February 24th was for the week, and the We have Canadian exchanges to the 24th lake as they stand, since the adjournment of February 24th was for the week, and the after proceedings of the House were pro-nounced null and void. The Chief Justice was very severe in remarking on the extra-ordinary and ureari-factory character of the Speaker's affidavit. This decision gives great satisfaction to the Confederates and confirm Carter and Evans in their seats. According to accounts Newfoundland fighermen have had an excellent season. The fish were striking in plentically on the southern coust. Very great activity was munifested in the codfisheries. The Custom House tenturus from January 1st till April 28th exturns from January 1-st illi April 28th exnibited an increase of $68,000 over the same period of last year. It was stated that Judge Black, formerly of Red River, would receive an appointment in the new Province of Manitoba Thomas Jenkius, a clerk in a commercial establishment of Hailax, (NS) who wrote to the London Times that the steamer City of Bostor was overloaded, bas been prosecuted for liber by the Luman Company, damages being placed at £20,000. It was said that Reil bad a commissioner be gottating with the Chicago Ferina, who, nowever, received the propositions coldly, manifesting no dispositin to interfere with the Red River expedition. According to latest accounts the Red River expedition was making satisfactory progress. The American Government had receded from the standard with course, to the presence of the taken with regard to the passage of the steamer Objects through the Sault Ste. Marie Canal, and the British vessels were permitted to pass without further moleculation. Reil tad appointed McKoy as Commissioner of Indian Affairs and Superintendent of Public Works. He asked the expression of the However, the asked the expression of the House on these appointments, saying that with the advance of another Government to power the Legislature might not have such an opportunity. The New Nation announced a grand concert to take place on the Queen's Birthday in the Court House, under the patronage of Bishop Tache.

ARRIVAL OF FEMALE IMMIGRANTS. - The gentlemen composing the Female Immigration Board had the satisfaction yesterday of receiving and 'placing' the first shipment of female servants. There were twenty-two of female servants. There were twenty-two of them, including the Matron, and it is gratifying to know that, although the passage was not a quick one, it was remarkably free from any disagreeable features. Not an accident; not a sorm; not a case of sickness. The immigrants were all cleanly, healthy and well behaved, and are unantmous in their praise of Captain Nielson. But all, how delighted they were to get Oushore. And it was indeed a touching sight, the parting of these girls after a five months' association at sea. It seemed as though not till then did the tull realization of their posparting of these girls after a five mode, association at sea. It seemed as though not still then did the full realization of their position come home to the mind, Far, far from dear old latherland, they must now part from each other and repair to the new homes prepared for them. Need we ask those in this community to whose charge these in this community to whose charge these girls have been confided to think of their locally and trying position, and, as far as circumstances may permit, act a maternal part towards them? Do not quite lose sight of the state in the servant. Remarches their of the sister in the servant. Remember that they are buman beings, in many respects with like passions and aspirations, and think, oh! think, that the very ioneliness and utter dependence of their situation only augments. the responsibility of those to whose chargo they have been committed. It may be pro-per for us to state that in consequence of cerlation the gentlemen composing the Board conceived it to be their duty to institute the most rigid investigation, which they did im-modiately upon boarding the ship. And it is due to all parties, and it affords us great pleasure to announce, that the result was mos preasure to announce, that the result was most gratifying to the Board. The conduct of these girls during the entire parsage was in perfect accord with the written characters they received in England,—wholly unexceptionable.

ARRIVAL OF THE ALPHA .- The Norwegian bark Alpha, Capt N A Nielson, arrived at 3 o'clock yesterday morning in Royal Roads and fired three gues to attract a pilot, who soon after went on board and took the bark into E quimal harbor. The Alpha sailed from Liverpool on the 10th of January, and meeting with head winds in the channel put into Belfast Bay, whence she sailed on the 18th of the same month. On the 23d of January pilot left the bark off Tuskar. On the 18th of February she crossed the Equator, trong Rot 50 Cana Here, she had thick after went on board and took the 18th of February she crossed the Equator; from Rio to Cape Horn she had thick weather; lay becalmed off the Cape two days; afterwards had variable weather in rounding the Cape; crossed the Equator in the Pacific on the 10th of May. Thence had variable weather until striving at Cape Frattery when a strong S W wind led the bark to Esquimalt harbor. The Alpha brings 22 passengers, all female, 21 of whom were engaged in England as servants in this colory. The captain speaks well of the passengers, who all appear to be very respectable young women. The health of all on board is excellent, and the bark presents a cleanly appearance. The Alpha has 1001 board is excellent, and the balk present a cleanly appearance. The Alpha has 1001 tons of freight, about 300 tons of which are consigned to Victoria houses and the balance will be sent to Portland, Oregon, in the Alpha. The Victoria leight will be dis-charged at E-quimalt and brought around to Victoria. Me-Brs Janion. Rhodes & Co are the ship's consignees. The consignee and freight list will appear to morrow.

THE CHICORA CASE.—It is already known that the United States authorities refused permission to the British steamer Chicora to pass through Sault Sie. Marie Canal. It appears that the ridiculous and undigorfied appears that the ricious and uning interposition assumed in this matter was subsequently receded from, and that the British steamers employed in connection with the Red River expedition have since been permitted free passage through the canal. Doubtless the United States authorizes abone becaust in some measure to canal. Doubtess the contest state states at the state of the states and the states of realize the absurdity and untenableness of their position in this matter. Possibly the fear that Canada might mete out the same fear that canada might never any states as their position in this matter. Possibly the fear that Canada might mete out the same measure to them with compound interest, as she could well do, had its share in bringing about this sudden change of policy. Reterring to the Chicora affair, the New York Herald, a paper chiefly remarkable for the bitterness of its anti-Bitish tendencies, says:

'It strikes as that Mr Secretary Fish is getting slightly moddled in this business. In the refusal to let the British Canadian troopship pass through our canal does he not recognize Riel and his Rad River insurgents as belligerents? And does not such a recognize Riel and his Rad River insurgents as belligerents? And does not such a recognize Riel and his Rad River insurgents as belligerents? Officially, has Mr Fi hap right to know that Riel and his men are belligerents one way or the other? We ask for information?

THE REGATTA. - The crews are in training for the Regutta. Outriggers and racinggigs may be seen dusting over the smooth surface of the harbor every evening, and surface of the harbor every evening, and have upon her lap. There was but one for the purpose of practice. There is likely of two things to do, faint or leave the to be a lively competition for the prizes.

En Route to Ottawa.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL DELEGATE.]

Chicago, May 25th, 1870
After a continuous ride of four days and six hours to a rail car, one feels like anysix hours in a rail car, one feels like anything else than writing an inteligible letter. With nerves unstrong and brain so dazed by the whirr and buzz of such a ride, it is almost impossible to guide the pen or form the mass of confused thoughts into anything like order. The grand panorama of mountains, valleys, can not deserts lakes plain. nains, valleys, can nos, deserts, lakes, plains, rivers, Indians, grizzlies, abtelopes and a thousand other objects takes such complete possession of the mind that a letter written under such circumstances would much re-semble one of A Ward's lectures—it would be about everything but the subject proposed be about everything our the enough proposed.

I will not attempt, therefore, to give even an outline of a journey which has been over and again graphically described already. Suffice it 10 say that mine was the good luck to pass over the Atlantic and Panific railway under auspices exceedingly favorable and rate. The weather throughout was delightlul, and showers of rain seemed to pricede us just sufficient to keep out of our way, and also sufficient to lay every particle of dust. The road from San Francisco to Omaha, for a new road, may be called good. Many places, it is true, require more time to settle to make the road solid, but the great wonder is that, being built in such upprecedented has c, and under circumstances of such intense excitement, it deserves public confidence. The road is a huge success. Every stockholder is made rich by it. The facilities to the owners granted by the Government, in the way of land grants and loans, were canal to an out-and-out present of the were equal to an out-and-out present of the road to the company, and many row com-plain of the monopoly, although, when first projected, those who are now the most envious were the loudest to proclaim the scheme a fallacy, The travel on the road is great—more Westward than Eastward. The tares are high and will no doubt be reduced great—more Westward than Eastward. The tares are high and will no doubt be reduced from Omaha to Chicago. There are three rival routes:—The Rock Island, Burlington and the Northwest. The first-named is decidedly the best—it being the shortest, best constructed and furnished, and passes through the finest country, giving wavellers an opportunity of seeing the amenda and great military works being carried on at Rock Island, tunity of seeing the argenal and great military works being carried on at Rock Island, under the supervision of Gen Rodman, obig gun notoriety.

Your [delegate] is one day ahead of the Government Delegates, and as lintend to leave here to morry I shall probably not see them until they arrive at Olawa, Chicago is a great city, full of life and activity and seemingly is going to profit largely by the opening of the Pacific and Alantic sail-oad, very much to the chagrin of the San Franvery much to the chagrin of the San Fran cisco merchants.

You will no doubt have received very recentry telegraphic news respecting the Fenian designs on Oanada, During my 20hours stay in this city I have made the Fenian raid a matter of special coquiry by calling on the editors of the leading papers and the agent of the Associated Press, and they the agent of the Associated Press, and they assure me there is no sympathy for the Fen-ian movement whatever, and that the acassure me there is no sympathy for the Fenian movement whatever, and that the accounts are greatly exaggerated. There is but one feeling among intelligent men in Chicago in regard to the matter, and that is one of contempt. The general hope is that the leaders will be well punished.
I called on the agent of the Associated Press with a view to obtaining for the Pacitic more general Dominion news in his comcitation of telegraphic dispatches, and you pilation of telegraphic dispatches, and you will be gratified to learn that he has assured me he will give the most careful attention to our wants, seeming fully to appreciate the support given by British Columbians to the American t-legraphs.

The question of union between Canada and British Columbia seems but little known here; and, so far as I can judge, annexation would not be entertained. Leading men here think a road opened from Canada to British Columbia would do infinitely more good to the U S Pacific than it would barm, as it would increase the trade and commerce of the Pacific, to the good of all.

You will next heir from me at the Mecca of my pilgrimage-Ottawa.

A Hard Random Hit.

(From the Galaxy )

'Many a shalt at random sent' hits something or other which the archer little meant' to touch. We have heard an ancedote illustrative of this truth which has probably not appeared in print before, and which has been told print before, and which has us as a piece of genuine history. Is bappened in a large city—never mind what city There were two pretry sisters who had married, one an eminent lawyer, and the other a distin guished literary man. Literary man dies and leaves younger sister a widow, Some years roll away, and the widow lays aside her weeds. Now, then, it happens that a certain author and critic has occasion on a broiling day in summer to call on the eminent lawyer and find's bim pleading and sweltering in a crowded court, sees that the lawyer is suffering dreadfuly from the heat, pities him, rejoices that he himself is not a lawyer, and goes for a cool saunter under the sheltering trees of a fashionable park and garden. Among the ice-earing, launing crowd there be meets the younger of the two sisters, and for a moment he thinks he is speaking to the elder. Oh, Mr. -- , exclaimed the lady, how dreadfully hot it is here! 'Yes, madam,' replies our luckless critio, at is hot here : but I can assure von the heat of this place isn't a circumtance, when compared with the heat of the place where your poor dead busband is suffering to-day! A horror stricken expression comes over the lace of the lady; she rises from the ct air and flouoces indignantly away.
And 'Me miserable,' so i equizes our wretched ortio, 'I have been mistaking the one sister for the other and see thinks I meant to say that her Lu band is—not in heaven? Mr. Duff has raised about £30,000 of Scrowlous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfeit tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeelbling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence.
